This brand new executive apartment is convenient to Green Park, the M4 and main routes to Reading and Oxford.

Access the luxury of this apartment through state of the art intercom at the front entrance or from the allocated parking space in the underground gated secure parking area, and either take the lift or the stairs to enter the apartment into the hallway.

The beautiful and well equipped bathroom is to the right as you enter the hallway and then to the left is the large living room with kitchen area with doors leading out to the spacious balcony.

Back to the hallway and from the living room, to your left is the east facing double bedroom with floor to ceiling windows which let in plenty of light and double width built in mirrored wardrobes for all your storage needs.

There are further cupboard's in the hallway one of which houses the washer dryer and hot water and heating systems.

This is just the home to come back to after an exhaustive day at work as it gives a feel of seclusion and tranquillity.
