This prestigious five house set in the quiet rural village of Burghfield in Berkshire. The property is situated within walking distance of scenic walks along the canal and is also conveniently located for access to Reading Town Centre and the M4 motorway. Local bus routes into Burghfield and Reading are situated nearby.

The property is well presented throughout and offers a large lounge with feature Inglenook fireplace, two further reception rooms and a spacious conservatory with doors leading out onto the garden. The kitchen has integrated appliances and a utility room.

On the first floor the galleried landing leads to the Master Bedroom of which has a spacious en-suite bathroom with shower cubicle. There are four further bedrooms and a large family bathroom.

Outside there is a double detached garage with a gravel driveway to the front providing off road parking for several cars. A laid to lawn area separates the second shingled driveway which provides further off road parking.

To the rear of the property there is a patio area leading to an extensive lawn area with swimming pool.
